FAQs

What is the minimum rental period?

The minimum rental period for our campers is five days. Longer minimums may apply over peak season and for one way rentals.

When are the branches open?

Our branches have seasonal opening hours. We are closed on public holidays including Good Friday (7 April 2023), Christmas Day (25 December 2023), New Year's Day (1 January 2024), and observed Australia Day (26 January 2024). For more information please refer to the terms and conditions or contact our friendly Apollo reservations team for more information.

Can I travel one way?

Yes! One way travel is available between our branches. One Way Fees apply when travelling between locations. Please refer to the full terms and conditions for applicable fees.

Do I need a special driver licence?

A current and full motor vehicle driver licence is required for all drivers and must be shown at pick up. The licence must have been held for at least 2 years and be valid for the entire duration of the booking. If the licence is not in English then an accredited translation or International driver permit is required.

How old do Apollo drivers need to be?

All drivers need to be 21 years or over.

What Liability and Bond options are available?

For peace of mind on the road we offer a range of Liability Reduction Options for guests to reduce their Liability while on their holiday. Guests can choose between the following options*:

- > 'The Low Road' - our most basic level of liability cover
- > 'The Middle Road' - to offer lower liability and bond
- > 'The High Road' - our highest cover option

*The amount payable for each Liability Option is based on the number of days of hire, minimum rental period applicable for each RV, or total days of the RV booking. The maximum charge for Liability Options is 50 days per rental segment.
